CASTAIC LAKE WATER AGENCY DIRECTOR E. G. "JERRY" GLADBACH
ELECTED TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NATIONAL WATER RESOURCES ASSOCIATION

Castaic Lake Water Agency (CLWA) Board Director "E. G. "Jerry" Gladbach was recently elected to the National Water Resources Association Board of Directors to serve a two year term.

Mr. Gladbach has served on the CLWA Board of Directors since January of 1985. He has also served on the Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA) Board of Directors as President, Vice President and as Chair on ACWA's Energy and Local Government Committee, as well as Chair of ACWA Region 8. Mr. Gladbach has been a part of the water and power industry for nearly fifty years and his wealth of knowledge of the water and power industry makes him the ideal elected official for the NWRA.

The NWRA is a nonprofit federation of state organizations whose membership includes rural water districts, municipal water entities, commercial companies and individuals. It is concerned with the appropriate management, conservation, and use of water and land resources on a national scope.

NWRA works to balance the needs of people and the environment and has worked closely with Congress and the Executive Branch for over fifty years, establishing positive relationships with key resource management agencies and departments.
